WILL YOU LEAVE A GIFT OF TRADITION AND TRANSFORMATION?

“As a member of the Orchard Society – as someone who has pledged to remember St George’s with a gift in your Will – you will be helping to fund bursaries and making a powerful impact on future generations of learners. You will be giving the greatest gift you can give anyone. Education. From there, anything is possible.”

Rachel Owens, Headmistress

This is Caroline Long's business card - she's our Director of Development and is happy to chat to you and answer any questions you may have about leaving a gift in your Will.

My intentions

- I have already remembered St George's in my Will.
- I intend to remember St George's in my Will.
- I am considering remembering St George's in my Will.
- I'd like more information – please send me a legacy booklet.

Next steps

I'd like to speak to St George's Director of Development, Caroline Long, to discuss remembering St George's in my Will in more detail. I'd prefer to be contacted by:

“ST GEORGE’S IS UNDOUBTEDLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PERSON I AM TODAY. I AM INCREDIBLY GRATEFUL FOR THE COMPASSION I WAS SHOWN BY THOSE PEOPLE WHO DONATED TO THE BURSARY SCHEME. THE GIFT OF EDUCATION IS INVALUABLE TO YOUNG PEOPLE SUCH AS MYSELF AND THE IMPACT THE BURSARY SCHEME CAN HAVE ON A STUDENT CANNOT BE OVERSTATED.”

Alice Richens,
OG and bursary recipient
